

West Side and City Suburban

DR. BECKWITH'S FUNERAL.

The Remains Will Be Taken to Rock Hill, N. C., for Interment.

Short services were conducted yesterday morning, shortly before noon, over the remains of the late Dr. B. G. Beckwith, at the residence of Clarence R. Shryver, 213 North Main avenue. They were private in nature and Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, officiated. The floral tributes, both from friends and the several societies to which the deceased belonged, were profuse and very beautiful. At the conclusion of the services, the remains were borne to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot to be taken to Plymouth, where a brother, Dr. J. P. Beckwith, resides.

Readings, little talks, etc., will help to break the monotony of the "stitch, stitch, stitch." Light refreshments will complete each evening's enjoyment. The membership thus far comprises the following: Mrs. James R. Hughes, Mrs. William N. Chase, Mrs. Robert J. Williams, Mrs. John J. York, and the Misses Anna Broadbent, Rachel Jones, Elizabeth Evans and Lillian Britley.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Major M. L. Blair, of South Main avenue, is visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. John Lewis, of Eyon street, and Mrs. Egan Lewis, of Corbett avenue, are the guests of relatives at Nanticoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Howell, of West Locust street, are happy over the arrival Sunday of a bright baby girl.

Mrs. Charles Bender, of North Rebecca avenue, was called to Johnston, Pa., by the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. Noah Davis, of North Main avenue, has gone to Seattle, Wash., where her brother, James Oliver, a former West Scranton resident, is lying seriously ill.

Assistant Mine Foreman Thomas W. Phillips, of South Main avenue, is still very ill at his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sless, of Luzerne street, are entertaining Mrs. Mary Weights, of West Pittston.

Miss Ollie Powell of Sweetland street, has assumed a position with Postmaster E. H. Ripple.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The members of St. Leo's Battalion are requested to meet at the hall on North Main avenue, early this evening in order to proceed in a body to Holy Cross church, Bellevue, where they will attend the fair.

The funeral services of the late David G. Morgan will be held this afternoon at the residence, 1511 Jackson street, at 3:30 o'clock. Interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

The financial report of the board of directors of St. Leo's Battalion made recently, indicates a substantial treasury with no outstanding obligations. The society's gross valuation is estimated to be $2,264.50. The furnishings for the Battalion rooms in St. David's hall, amount to $1,250 in value and the treasury contains $684.50.

The members of Keystone lodge, No. 2, Loyal Knights of America, are requested to meet at their lodge room this afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend, in a body, the funeral of the late David G. Morgan.

Rev. James Hughes will deliver a lecture this evening in the Welsh Congregational church on South Main avenue, his subject being Billy Bray, a very quaint character. Rev. Mr. Hughes will speak in the English language. Judge H. M. Edwards will preside and Mrs. Brundage and Llew Herbert will sing some favorite songs. The lecture will commence at eight o'clock sharp. Admission, ten cents.

Rev. R. R. Bulgin, pastor of the First Christian church, preached to a crowded house last Sunday evening on the subject, "Faith." Next Sunday evening he will deliver a five minute sermon to children followed by a dis-

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to use the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

West Side Business Directory.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE—Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. C. KING, 701 to 709 West Locust, swanna avenue.

MRS. FENTON, CLAIRVOYANT AND PHRENOLOGIST, 112 North Main avenue.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

St. John's Total Abstinence society has elected and installed the following officers for the coming year: President, James J. White; vice president, John McGrath; treasurer, John Hammon; sergeant at arms, John McGrath; financial secretary, John J. Sullivan; board of directors, Daniel Galvin, James Galvin, William Lynch, Thomas McIntyre, William Judge, Thomas Quinn, John McGrath, John Durkin, Thomas Langan, Philip Clifford. Cadets' officers, president, Mr. Daniel Galvin; secretary, John Kane.

A birthday party was tendered George Lewert, who was 77 years old, Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewert, 413 Willow street. Among those present were: George Lewert, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewert, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lewert, Mr. and Mrs. Herick Hecker and wife, George Morlang, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schramm, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Kate Hoffman, Mrs. Stella Lewert, the Misses Kate Lewert, Katie Hetrick, Mary, Lizzie, Maggie, Lottie and Elsie Morlang, Lizzie, Hatie and Mary Lewert, Paulina and Mary Lampert, Irene and Emma Leuzer, Mabel, Florence and Edith Renze, Paulina, Mamie and Frances Lampert, Misses George Hetrick, George Morlang, Joseph and Charles Lampert, Roy Hecker, Charles Harber, Charles, Philip and John Lewert, Walter Wyand, Henry, Edward and Walter Lewert, Robert, William and Arthur Lewert.

Phil Robinson left yesterday for Hot Springs, Ark.

The funeral of a four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reilly, of Stone avenue, took place yesterday afternoon. Burial was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brooks will be celebrated at their home Wednesday evening with a tin wedding.

Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Sarah Dunlop, of Palm street, and James Harrington, of North Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loftus have returned from their honeymoon trip and will go into housekeeping at Waymart.

The Democratic nominee for school controller from the Nineteenth ward, chosen last evening, is Frank B. Manley. The election was hotly contested. Mr. Manley being opposed by Peter Allabaugh. Michael Murphy received the nomination for school controller in the second district over Martin Giffin.

Charles Conrad has withdrawn from the fight for school controller in the Eleventh ward. He was the Democratic nominee and at his request his name was yesterday removed from the certificate of nomination on file in the county commissioners' office.

NORTH SCRANTON.

The funeral of Evan J. Morgans will take place this afternoon from his home on Church avenue. Religious services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. R. P. Jones, of the Welsh Congregational church, assisted by Rev. Peter Roberts, of Olyphant. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

An entertainment which occupied the attention of a large and appreciative audience, was that which was conducted in the West Market street Welsh Baptist church last night. The most interesting feature of the entertainment was the competition on the subject, "Aberystwyth" for double quartettes. Eight different parties appeared and each rendered the chosen song in excellent style. After due consideration the adjudicator, James Thomas, awarded the prize to the party from the Welsh Congregational church, and conducted by Henry Hitching.

Miss May and William Lynott, of Carbondale, are being entertained by Miss Kate Lynott at her home on West Market street.

GREEN RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peck, of Canouse avenue, entertained a party of friends in honor of the late Mrs. Green, of Elmhurst, last Saturday evening. Arthur Clark, of Monsey avenue, spent Sunday with Raymond Gelatt, at Kingston.

Mr. Tweed, of Sanborns avenue, is confined to his home through illness.

Miss Susan Harding, of Squehanna county, is the guest of her brother and family of Fordham street.

William Maynard filled the pulpit of the Primitive Methodist church, at Priceburg, Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Pratt, of Green Ridge street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Campbell, of Knoxville, Pa. The latter is a sister of Mrs. Pratt.

Jeese Smith has returned to his home in Montrose after a few days' visit with W. C. Reynolds and family, of New York street.

Colonel Monies' council, No. 842, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will conduct an entertainment and social in Lucas hall, corner East Market street and Sanderson avenue, next Thursday evening.

George Seid, the Capouse avenue barber, is unable to be at work on account of illness.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stone, 228 North York street.

Frank Treas and family, of North Main avenue, Providence, are moving into their new building in Richmond park.

The special meetings which were held in the Baptist church last week are being continued the first three evenings of this week.

DUNMORE.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warfel are visiting friends in Taylorville.

William Miller is ill at his home on Brook street.

Mrs. Mark Bishop is seriously ill at her home on Dudley street.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a variety tea at the church parlors this evening.

The Murry Coal company will pay its employees today.

Frank and Edgar Jones spent yesterday with friends at Nay, Aug.

Martin J. Monaghan, of the Grove street, has announced that he is a can-

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to use the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

WELSH BAPTISTS MEET.

Responded to a Call by Rev. Jones, of the North Scranton Church.

Ministers and followers of the Welsh Baptist denomination in this region met yesterday afternoon in the Wayne Avenue Baptist church in response to a call made by the pastor, Rev. John Davis.

The assemblage was for no other reason than for spiritual association. In the afternoon Rev. Charles Jones, of Nanticoke, read a paper on "Christian Consolation," followed by James A. Evans, J. G. Jones and others. In the evening a large crowd listened to sermons by Rev. D. J. Williams, of Perckville, in English; and by Rev. M. H. Jones, of Parsons, in Welsh.

Rev. James Hughes, of Kimberly, South Africa, also had a benediction. Among the out-of-town people present were: Philip Williams, Thomas Davies, of Edwardsdale; B. Lewis, John Phillips, W. H. Priest, of Olyphant.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Reasons for a new trial were yesterday filed in the case of Howley Brothers against B. E. Hurley, a benediction. Albert Zwiskie, who is charged with burglary, was admitted to bail yesterday in the sum of $50. Mathias Bugno became his bondsman.

A. S. Purcell, of Spruce street, yesterday began an action in trespass against Joseph J. Jermyn to recover damages. Attorney E. C. Newcomb filed the papers in the case.

Eugene Fildes, of Carbondale, brought suit yesterday to secure a divorce from his wife, Lina, who is charged with desertion. They were married in Eldred, N. Y., on Sept. 9, 1883, and lived together only one day.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by Clerk of the Courts Daniels to David Samuels and Lizzie Anna Thomas, Scranton; Simon Dargan and Master Dargan, Olyphant; Joseph Seigel and Esther O'Neil, Dunmore; John J. McCrone and Agnes Kenny, Scranton; James R. Kelly, Avoy, Wayne county; and Mr. Francis D. Decker, Scranton.

W. T. John, of Lyon street, asked the court yesterday to commit his daughter, Alice John, aged 14 years, to the house of refuge. The girl's mother is dead and she refuses to live at home or obey her father. The petition in the case was filed by M. M. Adams, Attorney Taylor and Lewis and court fixed next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock as the time for hearing arguments.

The fight over the legality of the certificates of election filed by the Noone Democratic factions of Lackawanna township was brought to the attention of the court yesterday when a petition was filed by Martin P. Judge, asking the court to declare illegal the papers of the opposing faction, whose ticket is headed by the names of Patrick J. Quinn and John Loftus as candidates for supervisors. The matter will be heard by the court next Saturday.

Court yesterday granted a rule on E. Ives to show cause why he should not be compelled to bring an action in ejectment within six months against Frank G. Smith, two lots in South Abington township are the matters in dispute. Mr. Ives is now in possession of the land but Mr. Smith claims to be the owner. To have the matter finally settled he seeks to compel Mr. Ives to bring a suit that the matter may be legally determined. Arguments on the rule will be heard at argument court.

MINOOKA.

The most puzzling question to political forecasters is the result of the coming election. Some venture the opinion that the Republican ticket will be overwhelmingly elected. Frank Toole, Republican candidate for supervisor, is making an active canvass and his friends feel confident of his efficient and creditable record as a practical roadmaker will be duly rewarded. His re-election would be a worthy testimony to his ability as a supervisor.

W. J. Delaney, of Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of C. W. Gallagher Sunday.

John McCrea circulated among Pittston friends yesterday.

Dominick King, of Pittston, was the guest of friends on Davis street Sunday.

OBITUARY.

After an illness of thirteen weeks, David Reynolds, 53 years of age, succumbed to a severe attack of miner's asthma, yesterday morning at his residence, 310 Thirteenth street. The deceased had been confined, more or less, for sometime, but was not able to get out of bed the latter part of November. He was born in Carmarthenshire, South Wales, and came to West Scranton in 1882. He has resided here with his family ever since. He was a quiet, home-loving man, but well known and liked by those with whom he came in contact. He was a member of the American Protestant association, No. 109; Dewi Sant lodge, No. 10, Order American Iovites; Central A. S. Hillary lodge, of Olyphant; and Welsh Congregational church, of Olyphant. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Amy, and two sons, Thomas and Joseph. The funeral services will be held at the residence at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Doyle, an old resident of Bellevue died Sunday afternoon at her home on Broadway. She was 78 years of age and had lived in this community where she lived was held in the highest esteem. Mrs. Doyle is survived by Miss Mary Doyle, a teacher in No. 12 school, and Sister Hilary, of the Olyphant convent. The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this morning from Holy Cross church and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Ann Mitcheon, of North Scranton, died yesterday morning about 2:30 p. m. at her home on Park street. Mrs. Mitcheon was 58 years of age and had been a resident of North Scranton for a number of years. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment is to be made in Priceburg Protestant cemetery.

Peter Malla, an aged resident of Archibald, died on Sunday evening, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Malla had been sick for several weeks. He had been a resident of Archibald about 20 years. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. James McHale, of Hill street, Archibald. The funeral arrangements are not yet complete.

OBITUARY.

Lincoln Jo, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jo, died on Sunday evening of an attack of diphtheria at the parental residence, 105 West Locust street. Funeral arrangements are not yet made, but will be private.

Mary A. Yeager, widow of H. H. Yeager, died yesterday at her home in Moscow. The funeral will be held this afternoon. Burial to be made in Moscow cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Wilkes-Barre Press Club Will Materialize a "up" with.

The scribes who make up the membership of the Wilkes-Barre Press club are as delicate in their tastes as they are exacting in their demands when the matter of arranging for their annual ball is uppermost. For some time past various committees have been industriously applying themselves to work of making the forthcoming ball of the club which takes place on Wednesday night in the spacious armory of the Ninth regiment, the most brilliant of any of its brilliant antecedents.

The auditorium will be transformed into a veritable fairy land of especial splendor, rendered so by the famous Furman, whose decorations will be as superb as they will be generous. Alexander's orchestra will supply the music for promenade and dance, and everything that can add comfort, pleasure and royal delight to guests will be supplied.

Arrangements have been made which will enable the members to purchase their tickets at the box office of the armory on the night of the ball.

OBITUARY.

Three Judges Are Engaged in Trying Cases.

This week, again, three judges are sitting in common pleas, Judge Archibald in the main court room, Judge Gunster in No. 2, and Judge John G. Love, of Center county, in the arbitration room.

The damages suit of Daniel Kehrer against Joseph Myers was called before Judge Archibald, but during the noon recess a settlement was effected, a verdict for the plaintiff was agreed upon and the case marked off the list.

The case of Thomas O'Malley against the Scranton Fire Insurance Co. is before Judge Gunster. Hon. M. F.

OBITUARY.

Common Pleas Court.

BAUER'S ORCHESTRA—MUSIC FOR ball, parties, receptions, weddings and concert work furnished. For terms address R. Bauer, conductor, 111 Wyoming avenue, over Huller's music store.

MEGARGER BROTHERS, PRINTERS supplies, envelopes, paper bags, wine, etc. 137 Washington avenue, Scranton, Pa.

FRANK P. BROWN & CO., WHOLESALE dealers in Woolens, Cordage and Oil Cloth, 720 West Lackawanna ave.

LOOMAS' ARTERY, EXPERT ACCOUNTANT and Auditor, Rooms 3 and 4, Williams Building, opposite Post-office. Agent for the Best Fire Extinguisher.

OBITUARY.

Printing.

THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO., North Washington avenue, Linton, Pa. Composition of all kinds quickly done. Facilities unsurpassed in this region.

OBITUARY.

Schools.

SCHOOL OF THE LACKAWANNA Scranton, Pa. Courses preparatory to college, law, medicine or business. Open September 8. Send for catalogue. By Thomas M. Cann, LL. D., Walter I. Buel, A. M.

OBITUARY.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 18 and 17 FRANKLIN AVENUE, Rates reasonable. P. ZIEGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

OBITUARY.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 18 and 17 FRANKLIN AVENUE, Rates reasonable. P. ZIEGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to use the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

WELSH BAPTISTS MEET.

Responded to a Call by Rev. Jones, of the North Scranton Church.

Ministers and followers of the Welsh Baptist denomination in this region met yesterday afternoon in the Wayne Avenue Baptist church in response to a call made by the pastor, Rev. John Davis.

The assemblage was for no other reason than for spiritual association. In the afternoon Rev. Charles Jones, of Nanticoke, read a paper on "Christian Consolation," followed by James A. Evans, J. G. Jones and others. In the evening a large crowd listened to sermons by Rev. D. J. Williams, of Perckville, in English; and by Rev. M. H. Jones, of Parsons, in Welsh.

Rev. James Hughes, of Kimberly, South Africa, also had a benediction. Among the out-of-town people present were: Philip Williams, Thomas Davies, of Edwardsdale; B. Lewis, John Phillips, W. H. Priest, of Olyphant.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Reasons for a new trial were yesterday filed in the case of Howley Brothers against B. E. Hurley, a benediction. Albert Zwiskie, who is charged with burglary, was admitted to bail yesterday in the sum of $50. Mathias Bugno became his bondsman.

A. S. Purcell, of Spruce street, yesterday began an action in trespass against Joseph J. Jermyn to recover damages. Attorney E. C. Newcomb filed the papers in the case.

Eugene Fildes, of Carbondale, brought suit yesterday to secure a divorce from his wife, Lina, who is charged with desertion. They were married in Eldred, N. Y., on Sept. 9, 1883, and lived together only one day.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday by Clerk of the Courts Daniels to David Samuels and Lizzie Anna Thomas, Scranton; Simon Dargan and Master Dargan, Olyphant; Joseph Seigel and Esther O'Neil, Dunmore; John J. McCrone and Agnes Kenny, Scranton; James R. Kelly, Avoy, Wayne county; and Mr. Francis D. Decker, Scranton.

W. T. John, of Lyon street, asked the court yesterday to commit his daughter, Alice John, aged 14 years, to the house of refuge. The girl's mother is dead and she refuses to live at home or obey her father. The petition in the case was filed by M. M. Adams, Attorney Taylor and Lewis and court fixed next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock as the time for hearing arguments.

The fight over the legality of the certificates of election filed by the Noone Democratic factions of Lackawanna township was brought to the attention of the court yesterday when a petition was filed by Martin P. Judge, asking the court to declare illegal the papers of the opposing faction, whose ticket is headed by the names of Patrick J. Quinn and John Loftus as candidates for supervisors. The matter will be heard by the court next Saturday.

Court yesterday granted a rule on E. Ives to show cause why he should not be compelled to bring an action in ejectment within six months against Frank G. Smith, two lots in South Abington township are the matters in dispute. Mr. Ives is now in possession of the land but Mr. Smith claims to be the owner. To have the matter finally settled he seeks to compel Mr. Ives to bring a suit that the matter may be legally determined. Arguments on the rule will be heard at argument court.

MINOOKA.

The most puzzling question to political forecasters is the result of the coming election. Some venture the opinion that the Republican ticket will be overwhelmingly elected. Frank Toole, Republican candidate for supervisor, is making an active canvass and his friends feel confident of his efficient and creditable record as a practical roadmaker will be duly rewarded. His re-election would be a worthy testimony to his ability as a supervisor.

W. J. Delaney, of Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of C. W. Gallagher Sunday.

John McCrea circulated among Pittston friends yesterday.

Dominick King, of Pittston, was the guest of friends on Davis street Sunday.

OBITUARY.

After an illness of thirteen weeks, David Reynolds, 53 years of age, succumbed to a severe attack of miner's asthma, yesterday morning at his residence, 310 Thirteenth street. The deceased had been confined, more or less, for sometime, but was not able to get out of bed the latter part of November. He was born in Carmarthenshire, South Wales, and came to West Scranton in 1882. He has resided here with his family ever since. He was a quiet, home-loving man, but well known and liked by those with whom he came in contact. He was a member of the American Protestant association, No. 109; Dewi Sant lodge, No. 10, Order American Iovites; Central A. S. Hillary lodge, of Olyphant; and Welsh Congregational church, of Olyphant. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Amy, and two sons, Thomas and Joseph. The funeral services will be held at the residence at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Doyle, an old resident of Bellevue died Sunday afternoon at her home on Broadway. She was 78 years of age and had lived in this community where she lived was held in the highest esteem. Mrs. Doyle is survived by Miss Mary Doyle, a teacher in No. 12 school, and Sister Hilary, of the Olyphant convent. The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this morning from Holy Cross church and interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Ann Mitcheon, of North Scranton, died yesterday morning about 2:30 p. m. at her home on Park street. Mrs. Mitcheon was 58 years of age and had been a resident of North Scranton for a number of years. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment is to be made in Priceburg Protestant cemetery.

Peter Malla, an aged resident of Archibald, died on Sunday evening, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Malla had been sick for several weeks. He had been a resident of Archibald about 20 years. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. James McHale, of Hill street, Archibald. The funeral arrangements are not yet complete.

OBITUARY.

Lincoln Jo, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jo, died on Sunday evening of an attack of diphtheria at the parental residence, 105 West Locust street. Funeral arrangements are not yet made, but will be private.

Mary A. Yeager, widow of H. H. Yeager, died yesterday at her home in Moscow. The funeral will be held this afternoon. Burial to be made in Moscow cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Wilkes-Barre Press Club Will Materialize a "up" with.

The scribes who make up the membership of the Wilkes-Barre Press club are as delicate in their tastes as they are exacting in their demands when the matter of arranging for their annual ball is uppermost. For some time past various committees have been industriously applying themselves to work of making the forthcoming ball of the club which takes place on Wednesday night in the spacious armory of the Ninth regiment, the most brilliant of any of its brilliant antecedents.

The auditorium will be transformed into a veritable fairy land of especial splendor, rendered so by the famous Furman, whose decorations will be as superb as they will be generous. Alexander's orchestra will supply the music for promenade and dance, and everything that can add comfort, pleasure and royal delight to guests will be supplied.

Arrangements have been made which will enable the members to purchase their tickets at the box office of the armory on the night of the ball.

OBITUARY.

Common Pleas Court.

BAUER'S ORCHESTRA—MUSIC FOR ball, parties, receptions, weddings and concert work furnished. For terms address R. Bauer, conductor, 111 Wyoming avenue, over Huller's music store.

MEGARGER BROTHERS, PRINTERS supplies, envelopes, paper bags, wine, etc. 137 Washington avenue, Scranton, Pa.

FRANK P. BROWN & CO., WHOLESALE dealers in Woolens, Cordage and Oil Cloth, 720 West Lackawanna ave.

LOOMAS' ARTERY, EXPERT ACCOUNTANT and Auditor, Rooms 3 and 4, Williams Building, opposite Post-office. Agent for the Best Fire Extinguisher.

OBITUARY.

Printing.

THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO., North Washington avenue, Linton, Pa. Composition of all kinds quickly done. Facilities unsurpassed in this region.

OBITUARY.

Schools.

SCHOOL OF THE LACKAWANNA Scranton, Pa. Courses preparatory to college, law, medicine or business. Open September 8. Send for catalogue. By Thomas M. Cann, LL. D., Walter I. Buel, A. M.

OBITUARY.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 18 and 17 FRANKLIN AVENUE, Rates reasonable. P. ZIEGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

OBITUARY.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 18 and 17 FRANKLIN AVENUE, Rates reasonable. P. ZIEGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

OBITUARY.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 18 and 17 FRANKLIN AVENUE, Rates reasonable. P. ZIEGLER, Proprietor.

SCRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D. L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European plan. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

Woman's Best Friend
Largest package—greatest economy. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago, St. Louis, New York, Boston, Philadelphia.

Walter W. Branson
Boned Turkey Croquettes, Salads of All Kinds, Wedding Parties, Experienced Men. All orders promptly attended to. Order can be left at 124 Washington ave., or can be seen at Jones Long's Sons' Cafe.

ORBAN WILL BE TAKEN BACK.
Goes to Fayette County Today in Charge of Detective McBeth.

County Detective Alex. McBeth, of Fayette county, arrived here yesterday for Andrew Orban, who on Christmas morning murdered his brother, Joseph Orban, at Brownville, Fayette county. Court made an order directing Sheriff Fryor to turn the murderer over to Detective McBeth and he will be taken back to Fayette county this morning.

During the afternoon Detective McBeth and County Detective Leysion, accompanied by Interpreter Martin Woyshner, went to the county jail and got Orban's version of the murder. He admitted the killing and said his brother accused him of cheating. They quarreled and the murder followed. Last night Detective McBeth went to Mayfield and subpoenaed witnesses.

WALTER W. BRANSON
Boned Turkey Croquettes, Salads of All Kinds, Wedding Parties, Experienced Men. All orders promptly attended to. Order can be left at 124 Washington ave., or can be seen at Jones Long's Sons' Cafe.

Fine Line of NEW STYLES STONE RING!
Diamond and Combination Rings
Sterling Silver Ware and Sterling Novelties.

Finest stock of Watches, all the latest styles and sizes at very close figures.

CUTGLASS, CLOCKS, Etc

The largest Jewelry House in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

MERCEREAU & CONNELL
130 Wyoming Ave.

THE Snow White PATENT FLOUR

We Make It. We Warrant It. We Wholesale It.

THE WESTON MILL CO.
Scranton, Olyphant, Carbondale.

MADE ME A MAN
AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Disorders—Falling Memory, Headaches, Sleeplessness, Stomach Troubles, Loss of Vitality, Old or young, and all ailments arising from a weak or diseased system. It is the most powerful and reliable remedy ever discovered. It is sold in all drug stores. Price 50c per box. For full particulars, send for free literature to "AJAX REMEDY CO., Chicago, Ill."

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.

PROFESSIONAL DIRECTORY.
Advertisements Under This Head $5 Per Line Per Year.

Physicians and Surgeons.
DR. KAY, 296 Penn ave., 1-5 and 7-9 p. m. Diseases of women, children, Telephone. Hours: 10 to 12, 2 to 4, 7 to 9 p. m.

DR. BATESON, 337 N. WASHINGTON AVENUE, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

DR. C. L. FREY, SCRANTON SAVINGS BANK BLDG, 122 WYOMING AVENUE.

MARY A. SHEPHERD, M. D., HOMEOPATHIST, No. 228 Adams avenue.

DR. A. TRAPOLD, SPECIALIST IN Diseases of Women, corner Wyoming and Spruce streets, Scranton, Pa. Office hours, Thursday and Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

DR. W. E. ALLEN, 52 NORTH WASHINGTON AVENUE.

DR. L. M. GATES, ROOMS 207 and 208 Board of Trade Building, Office hours, 9 to 9 a. m., 2 to 3 and 7 to 8 p. m. Residence 302 Madison avenue.

DR. C. L. FREAS, SPECIALIST IN Rupture, Truss Fitting and Fat Reduction, Office, telephone 132, Hours: 10 to 12 to 4 to 7 to 9.

DR. S. W. L'AMOREAUX, OFFICE 234 Adams Avenue, Residence, 135 Mulberry. Chronic diseases, lungs, heart, kidneys, and genito-urinary organs a specialty. Hours 1 to 4 p. m.

W. G. BOOK, VETERINARY SURGEON, Horses, Cattle and Dogs treated. Hospital, 124 Linden street, Scranton, Telephone 272.

<